NOTES

C COMMUNIST CHINA - UN: According to the Chinese Embassy in Ottawa, a delegation to the UN is expected to depart Peking today, arriving on 5 or 6 November. The delegation is to be headed by acting Foreign Minister Chi Peng-fei--an indication that Peking is attaching great importance to the symbolic act of occupying its "rightful seat" in New York. The Communist Chinese have apparently concluded that despite public declarations that Taipei will attempt to retain its place in specialized UN agencies, the Nationalists in most cases have little chance of actually doing so.
